

Israel (35%)

The Abraham Fund Initiatives*50,000

The Abraham Fund Initiatives works to advance coexistence, equality and cooperation among Israel's Jewish and Arab citizens by creating and operating large-scale initiatives, cultivating strategic grassroots projects and conducting public education and advocacy that promote its vision of shared citizenship and opportunity for all of Israel's citizens.

Adalah: The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in Israel*10,000

Adalah works to achieve equal individual and collective rights for the Arab minority in Israel in different fields including land rights; civil and political rights; cultural, social, and economic rights; religious rights; women's rights; and prisoners' rights.

Adva Center for Justice and Equality*10,000

Adva Center is a non-partisan, action-oriented policy and budget analysis center focusing on disadvantaged populations in Israel.

American Friends of Hebrew University*10,000

The Cohen Foundation supported the April 14, 2010 tribute dinner honoring Kenneth Feinberg and supporting the Jerusalem Justice Center for social responsibility at The Hebrew University's Faculty of Law.

Americans for Peace Now*25,000

Americans for Peace Now works to focus the international community's attention on the issue of settlements in Israel; educates the American Jewish community, Capitol Hill, the Administration, students, and reporters on the complexities of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict; and promotes positive Congressional and Administrative positions of the peace process.

American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee*55,000

The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee provides rescue and relief to Jews in need both in Israel and abroad.

Arava Institute for Environmental Studies*25,000

The Arava Institute for Environmental Studies is the premier environmental teaching and research program in the Middle East, preparing future Arab and Jewish leaders to solve the region's environmental challenges cooperatively.

Association for Civil Rights in Israel*25,000

The Association for Civil Rights in Israel works to protect and promote rights in Israel and the Occupied Territories through litigation, education, community outreach, and policy advocacy efforts.

Bimkom: Planners for Planning Rights*10,000

Bimkom-Planners for Planning Rights strives to achieve the right to equality and social justice in matters of planning, development, and the allocation of land resources, and assists communities and minorities affected by social and economic disadvantage and by civil rights' discriminations to exercise their rights in this area.

Blue White Future*25,000

Blue White Future aims at enhancing and making visible the Israeli public's support for a two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in order to preserve Israel's character as a Jewish and democratic state.

B'Tselem – The Israeli Center for Human Rights in the Occupied Territories	25,000
B'Tselem works to document and educate the Israeli public and policymakers about human rights violations in the Occupied Territories and help create a human rights culture in Israel.
Center for Jewish Arab Economic Development	25,000
The Center for Jewish-Arab Economic Development works to further the integration of Israel's Arab population into mainstream society and economy by closing the economic gaps between the Jewish and Arab communities in Israel and by fostering economic cooperation.
Encounter	5,000
Encounter is an educational organization dedicated to providing Jewish Diaspora leaders from across the religious and political spectrum with exposure to Palestinian life.
Gilboa Regional Council	10,000
NNCF supported an international mayors conference Gilboa Regional Council is planning in conjunction with Jenin for November 2011.
Givat Haviva Jewish-Arab Center for Peace	25,000
Givat Haviva Jewish-Arab Center for Peace works to empower the Arab minority as a key to creating a more peaceful and tolerant society and brings Arab and Jewish youth together for co-existence programs.
HaMoked: Center for the Defence of the Individual	5,000
HaMoked: Center for Defence of the Individual works to assist Palestinian residents of the Occupied Territories whose rights are violated due to Israeli policies.
Hand in Hand: Centers for Jewish-Arab Education in Israel	349,270
Hand in Hand operates four integrated, bilingual, multicultural Jewish-Arab schools for Jewish, Muslim and Christian children in grades pre-K through junior high, with the vision of creating a new model of integrated education.
Inter-Agency Task Force on Israeli Arab Issues	10,000
The Inter-Agency Task Force works to inform the American Jewish community on majority/minority relations in Israel; increasing awareness of economic, educational and social service weaknesses facing Israeli Arab communities.
Ir Amim	10,000
Ir Amim seeks to reach out and influence broad circles of policy makers and opinion shapers regarding the status of Jerusalem as a divided city.
Israel Religious Action Center	25,000
The Israel Religious Action Center strives to advance religious freedom and pluralism, tolerance, social justice and civil liberties in Israel.
J Street Education Fund	50,000
J Street was founded to promote meaningful American leadership to end the Arab-Israeli and Israeli-Palestinian conflicts peacefully and diplomatically. It supports a new direction for American policy in the Middle East and a broad public and policy debate about the U.S. role in the region.

Jewish Federations of North America*Social Venture Fund for Jewish-Arab Equality and Shared Society 52,566

The Social Venture Fund for Jewish-Arab Equality and Shared Society works to leverage the collective resources of members and stakeholders by funding initiatives in Israel that: build mutual respect and understanding between Jewish and Arab citizens; increase opportunities for Israel's Arab citizens to share equally in the social, educational, and economic life of the country; and promote structural and institutional reforms that support the vision of Israel as a shared society that benefits all of its citizens.

Just Vision 5,000

Just Vision uses media and educational tools to raise awareness to local and international audiences about under-documented Palestinian and Israeli joint civilian efforts to resolve the conflict nonviolently.

Merchavim – The Institute for the Advancement of Shared Citizenship 175,000

Merchavim - The Institute for the Advancement of Shared Citizenship in Israel works to equip young Israelis of all backgrounds to build a shared future by learning about their fellow citizens, appreciating the diversity of Israeli society and working together to improve their classrooms, schools and communities.

Middle East Education through Technology 10,000

MEET is an innovative educational initiative aimed at creating a common professional language between Israeli and Palestinian young leaders. Working together with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), MEET enables its participants to acquire advanced technological and leadership tools while empowering them to create positive social change within their own communities.

New Israel Fund 100,000

New Israel Fund is the leading organization committed to equality and democracy for all Israelis.

Peace Players International – Middle East 5,000

PeacePlayers International engenders meaningful interaction between Arab and Jewish children in Israel and the West Bank through joint basketball activities and life skills sessions which take place regularly throughout the entire school year.

Physicians for Human Rights - Israel 40,000

Physicians for Human Rights advocates for the right to health in Israel and the Occupied Territories and provides direct medical relief through a mobile clinic and specialist clinics in the West Bank, an open clinic for migrant workers, and training for Palestinian medical professionals.

Sikkuy :The Association for the Advancement of Civic Equality 20,000

Sikkuy is a Jewish-Arab advocacy organization dedicated to advancing Civic Equality between Jewish and Palestinian-Arab citizens of Israel.

YEDID: The Association for Community Empowerment 40,000

Yedid is a national network of Citizen Rights Centers in disadvantaged communities throughout Israel working with cases on social security, employment rights, debt management, housing rights, and food insecurity.

Environment (12%)*Bonobo Conservation Initiative*230,000

Bonobo Conservation Initiative is dedicated to ensuring the survival of the bonobo (Pan paniscus, a great ape species) and its tropical forest habitat in the Congo Basin.

Chesapeake Bay Foundation*10,000

Chesapeake Bay Foundation seeks to restore and sustain the Bay's ecosystem by substantially improving the water quality and productivity of the watershed with respect to water clarity, resilience of the system, and diversity and abundance of living resources.

Center for Environmental Health*25,000

The Center for Environmental Health protects people from toxic chemicals and promotes business products and practices that are safe for public health and the environment.

Coalition for Smarter Growth*25,000

Coalition for Smarter Growth addresses where and how the Washington region grows, partners with communities in planning for the future, and offers solutions to the interconnected challenges of housing, transportation, energy and the environment.

Environmental Law Institute*25,000

The Environmental Law Institute provides information services, advice, publications, training courses, seminars, research programs and policy recommendations to engage and empower environmental leaders.

Freedom to Roam*5,000

Freedom to Roam's goal is to ensure the long-term survival of North America's wildlife by conserving essential wildlife corridors so animals can continue to roam.

Global Anti-Incinerator Alliance*15,000

GAIA is a worldwide alliance of more than 500 grassroots groups, non-governmental organizations, and individuals in over 80 countries whose ultimate vision is a just, toxic-free world without incineration.

Marine Conservation Biology Institute*25,000

Marine Conservation Biology Institute champions ocean conservation by advancing the science of marine conservation biology and securing protection for ocean ecosystems.

National Coalition for Marine Conservation*25,000

The mission of the National Coalition for Marine Conservation is to build public awareness of the threats to our marine fisheries, provide constructive solutions, and convince state, national and international fishery managers to take appropriate action to protect living marine resources for the long-term benefit of the public.

Product Policy Institute*25,000

The Product Policy Institute works to build a diverse network of key experts and innovative thinkers to develop a strong framework for effective product-focused environmental policies.

Recycled Building Network*25,000

ReBuild accepts used building material donations, sells the products at deeply discounted prices to the public, and uses the proceeds to train unemployed and underemployed unskilled workers for "green collar" jobs.

Story of Stuff Project*10,000

The mission of the Story of Stuff Project is to build a strong, diverse, decentralized and cross-sector movement to fundamentally shift systems of production and consumption toward ecological sustainability and social equity.

Jewish (10%)*American Jewish World Service*35,000

American Jewish World Service supports more than 200 grassroots organizations working towards sustainable agriculture, increased access to education and health care, women's empowerment, and economic self-sufficiency in 30 countries throughout Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

Avodah - DC: The Jewish Service Corps*10,000

AVODAH: The Jewish Service Corps engages young people to live out and deepen their commitments to social change and Jewish life through a year of full-time work at anti-poverty organizations in Washington, DC.

Birthright Israel Foundation*10,000

Taglit-Birthright Israel provides the gift of first time, peer group, educational trips to Israel for Jewish young adults ages 18 to 26.

Clal – The National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership*5,000

Clal-The National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership is a leadership training institute, think tank and resource center.

Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington*20,000

The Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington is the public affairs and community relations arm of the Jewish Federation and 210 regional constituent organizations.

Jewish Council for Public Affairs*10,000

The mission of the JCPA is to serve as the representative voice of the organized American Jewish community through national member agencies, local community relations councils and committees, and Jewish federations.

Jewish Council for the Aging*10,000

Jewish Council for the Aging helps seniors and their caregivers access providers and resources; we provides answers to many transportation, home care, housing and employment needs; and directs various activities to enhance the lives and lifestyles of seniors.

Jewish Federation of Greater Washington*110,000

The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington develops financial and human resources, as well as programmatic initiatives and partnerships, all geared toward building and maintaining a strong Jewish community locally and worldwide.

Jewish FundS for Justice*75,000

Jewish FundS for Justice educates and involves Jews in the problems of poverty by making grants and providing technical assistance to grassroots groups working to eliminate poverty and leverages Jewish money for investment in low-income neighborhoods that need revitalization.

Naomi and Nehemiah Cohen Foundation*2010 grants*Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington*10,000

Jewish Historical Society houses the Washington Jewish community's archives, a collection that archives local Jewry from the 1850s to today.

Jews United for Justice*25,000

Jews United for Justice leads Washington-area Jews to act on their shared Jewish values by pursuing justice and equality in their local community.

Moment Magazine*5,000

Moment Magazine is the largest independent Jewish magazine in North America.

Panim Institute of B'nai Brith Youth Organization*5,000

The Panim Institute works to train the next generation of Jewish leaders through the integration of Jewish learning, values and social responsibility.

Sixth and I Historic Synagogue*5,000

Sixth & I is a non-denominational, non-membership, non-traditional synagogue that aims to reinvigorate connections to Judaism by offering outstanding programming and dialogue opportunities that speak to personal, spiritual, and social interests. As an incubator of innovation, Sixth & I primarily works to engage unaffiliated Jews in their twenties and thirties, while simultaneously serving as a multi-generational community resource.

Washington DC JCC*15,000

The Washington DCJCC offers cultural, educational, and community service programs.

National Civic Engagement (10%)*Center for Community Change*25,000

The Center for Community Change strengthens, connects and mobilizes grassroots groups to enhance their leadership, voice and power.

Democracia USA*75,000

Democracia USA is a national nonpartisan Hispanic civic engagement, voter empowerment, community organizing, and leadership development organization.

Government Accountability Project*15,000

Government Accountability Project helps to ensure government and corporate accountability by uniting whistleblowers' inside information and expertise with concerned citizens, policymakers and the media and gives legal assistance to employees who choose to "blow the whistle."

People For the American Way Foundation*5,000

People for the American Way Foundation advocates for the values and institutions that sustain a diverse democratic society.

Piper Fund*25,000

Piper Fund was established in 1997 as a funder collaborative to support the growing movement of campaign finance reform efforts at the state level.

USAction Education Fund*75,000

USAction Education Fund works to increase civic and voter participation, especially among the traditionally under-represented constituencies, such as people of color.

Women's Voices Women Vote*75,000

Women's Voices. Women Vote works to activate unmarried Americans in government and democracy.

Working America Education Fund*50,000

The Working America Education Fund reaches heartland America with a progressive perspective on economic issues.

Human Services & Affordable Housing (9%)*Anne Frank House*5,000

Anne Frank House is an all volunteer organization that provides affordable housing and supportive services to formerly homeless persons who suffer from chronic mental illness.

Bread for the City*80,000

Bread for the City provides legal, medical and social services, and emergency assistance to impoverished children and adults in Washington, D.C.

Capital Area Food Bank*25,000

The Capital Area Food Bank is the largest, public nonprofit hunger and nutrition education resource in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area and distributes 20 million pounds of food annually, including six million pounds of fresh produce, through more than 700 member agencies.

Community Council for the Homeless at Friendship Place*10,000

The Community Council for the Homeless at Friendship Place provides outreach, medical and psychiatric services, transitional and permanent housing, and social services for homeless men and women living in upper Northwest Washington, D.C.

Community Development Support Collaborative*25,000

The Community Development Support Collaborative works to revitalize and stabilize low-income, distressed neighborhoods in the District of Columbia through the provision of capacity building grants, training, and technical assistance.

DC Central Kitchen*75,000

DC Central Kitchen collects more than one million pounds of food each year from local foodservice businesses and restaurants and converts that donated food into nearly 4,000 meals each day and trains unemployed men and women for jobs in the foodservice industry.

Downtown Cluster of Congregations*5,000

Downtown Cluster of Congregations is an ecumenical association of 43 congregations that share resources to provide outreach, case management, and referrals to indigent street homeless in Washington, DC.

Miriam's Kitchen*25,000

Miriam's Kitchen provides warm meals for the homeless in the DC community and case management to assist those in need of transportation, housing and other various needs.

N Street Village*25,000

N Street Village provides a wide range of services, including substance abuse treatment and recovery, social services, emergency shelter, childcare, medical and mental health services and affordable housing for low and moderate income families and individuals in the District of Columbia.

Samaritan Inns*25,000

Samaritan Inns is a community-based, nonprofit organization that provides affordable housing programs and a continuum of recovery services for men and women experiencing homelessness and addictions in our nation's capital.

Thrive DC (formerly Dinner Program for Homeless Women)*25,000

Dinner Program for Homeless Women serves over 100,000 meals to homeless, men, women and children annually.

Reproductive Health & Choice (8%)*Mary's Center for Maternal and Child Care*50,000

Mary's Center for Maternal and Child Care serves multicultural populations throughout the metro Washington, D.C. region, serving individuals and families who have limited or no access to health-related services.

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health*15,000

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health is a national network of pro-choice physicians who work to ensure that all people have the knowledge, access to quality services, and freedom to make their own reproductive health decisions.

Planned Parenthood Federation of America*50,000

Planned Parenthood Federation of America works to reduce the incidence of teen and unintended pregnancy, expand access to reproductive health services and technologies, and mobilize grassroots participation needed to change policies, trends, attitudes and behaviors.

Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington*30,000

Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington supports and advocates for the right of every person to make responsible, informed reproductive health choices and provides low-income, at-risk teens, women, and men with confidential reproductive and preventive health care and education services.

Teen & Young Adult Health Connection*60,000

TAYA Health provides responsible healthcare and education to male and female teens and young adults to decrease the number of teen pregnancies and sexually transmitted diseases.

Unity Health Care*50,000

Unity Health Care offers a citywide network of quality health and human services to the medically underserved regardless of race, ethnic background or ability to pay.

Washington AIDS Partnership/Syringe Access Working Group*20,000

The Washington AIDS Partnership encourages local philanthropy to become involved in HIV/AIDS grantmaking through locally-based community partnerships and matching grants. The Partnership has granted over $14 million to over 130 organizations that work on HIV/AIDS prevention, education and service programs.

Education & Youth Development (7%)*Beacon House Community Ministry 25,000

Beacon House provides after-school programs for children and youth, ages five through 18, in low-income communities in Ward 5 of Northeast Washington.

Bright Beginnings 50,000

Bright Beginnings is a child development center for homeless children, ages six months to five years, whose families live in shelters and transitional housing in the District of Columbia.

DC Scores 50,000

DC SCORES provides after school soccer and creative writing activities to elementary and middle school students in 22 District of Columbia public schools.

Fund for Education and Human Services 3,000

The Fund for Education and Human Services Provides training for teachers in the DC public school system.

Higher Achievement Program 50,000

The Higher Achievement Program strengthens the skills of intellectually curious middle-school youth in under-resourced communities and enhances their readiness to excel in demanding high school environments. Its mission is to develop critical academic habits and attitudes in young scholars in order to improve their grades and increase their educational opportunities.

Inner City - Inner Child 10,000

Sponsored by Dumbarton Concerts, Inner City-Inner Child is an early childhood education program that works with child development centers to improve their quality and provide creative literacy-based programming.

Latin American Youth Center 50,000

The Latin American Youth Center is a youth development center that supports more than 5,000 Latino, African, and African American youth and families with educational programs and vocational training.

Urban Alliance 10,000

Urban Alliance works to prepare young adults from under-resourced neighborhoods in Washington, DC for the world of work and a life of self-sufficiency through education, mentoring, and meaningful paid internships.

Local Civic Affairs (7%)*DC Alliance of Youth Advocates 10,000

DC Alliance of Youth Advocates is a citywide coalition that works to ensure policies, programs and practices within the District of Columbia that promote and propel youth into productive and healthy adulthood.

DC Appleseed Center for Law and Justice 10,000

DC Appleseed conducts research and analyses that address important public policy issues facing Washington, DC and advocates for practical solutions to some of DC's most challenging problems.

DC Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy 25,000
 DC Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy works to reduce the teen pregnancy rate in the District of Columbia by galvanizing public support, training parents, listening to teens and keeping the spotlight focused on teen pregnancy prevention.

DC Employment Justice Center 40,000
 DC Employment Justice Center secures and enforces the rights of low-income workers in the Washington, DC metropolitan area by providing legal services and educational programs about workplace rights and responsibilities and by working on legislative campaigns that benefit low-wage workers.

DC Fiscal Policy Institute 25,000
 DC Fiscal Policy Institute works to analyze the District's fiscal problems and makes recommendations for addressing serious budget shortfalls in ways that protect services vital to low-income residents.

DC Hunger Solutions 5,000
 DC Hunger Solutions works to fight hunger and improve the nutrition, health, and well-being of children and families in the District of Columbia by informing the public about hunger and food insecurity in D.C., working to boost participation in D.C. child nutrition programs and working to ensure better food stamp access for more District residents.

DC Vote 100,000
 DC Vote educates the public about the need for District of Columbia citizens to obtain full voting representation in the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate.

Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless 20,000
 The Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless provides legal representation and helps homeless individuals secure benefits, avoid eviction, access shelter or subsidized housing, and secure mental health services.

Other International (2%)

GoodWeave 10,000
 GoodWeave works to end illegal child labor in the carpet industry and to offer educational opportunities to children in South Asia.

Other Worlds 25,000
 NNCF supported Other World's work to document the ways that communities and social movements, together with their allies around the world, are working to build just economic, environmental, and political alternatives out of the ruins of the Haiti earthquake.

Sweatfree Communities 40,000
 Sweatfree Communities assists sweatshop workers globally in their struggles to improve working conditions and form strong, independent unions.

Philanthropic Institutional Support (1%)

Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington 10,000
 The Catalogue for Philanthropy helps community-based nonprofits to gain visibility, increase resources, diversify their funding streams, and move toward sustainability. It shines a light on some of the beset nonprofit organizations in Metropolitan Washington while building an engaged donor community.

Naomi and Nehemiah Cohen Foundation

2010 grants

Foundation Center - Washington, DC

3,000

The Foundation Center provides grantseekers and grantmakers with free public access to print and electronic resources on fundraising, nonprofit management, and philanthropy and offers free training programs.

Nonprofit Roundtable of Greater Washington

10,000

The Nonprofit Roundtable of Greater Washington brings nonprofit leaders together in order to address community issues.

Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers

12,500

The Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers promotes and supports effective and responsible philanthropy by serving the needs of grantmakers throughout the greater Washington region and by fostering closer ties between funders and the non-profit community.